"Tradition 1964 . . . Our

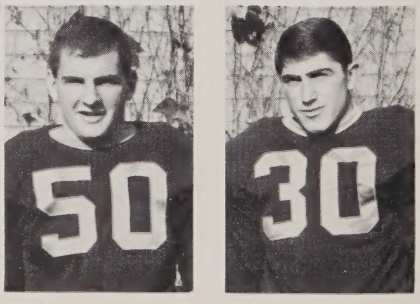
DR. JOSEPH L. MALONE
English Head Master

Today, as the men of Boston English and Boston Latin prepare to engage in the seventy-eighth annual classic football game, we should imbue ourselves with the spirit of this Thanksgiving day.

Soon, the game will end . . . the stands, once filled with thousands of loyal Alumni, will now remain empty and silent. The only thing that shall remain in Harvard Stadium will be the rich, imbedded tradition that has been the keynote to all English-Latin games.

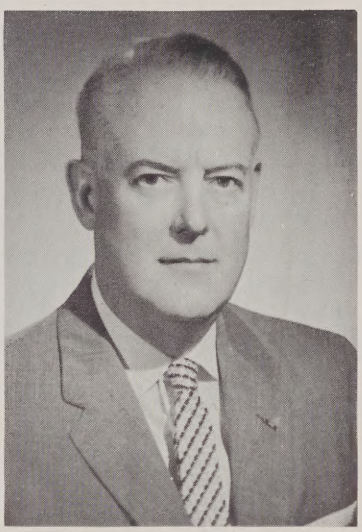
Who can forget the tradition in which seventy-seven games all ready have been played. One game, more so than any of the others, will always remain in our hearts and minds. Who can ever forget the flag, streaming proudly with its stars and stripes pointed to the sky in memory of our fallen leader. We shall never forget the sight of that flag, flying at half mast in memory of our late and beloved President, John F. Kennedy.

No matter what the outcome of the game might be, let us not loose sight of why it is played. This tradition is a prodigious symbol of the SPORTSMANSHIP that is within all of us here today.



English Co-Captains
McCool and Caporale

Hopes for the Future"



DR. WILFRED O'LEARY
Latin Head Master

No two people in this Ivy clad palace of tradition, know the ideal of sportsmanship better than William Stewart and Edward Lambert — the head coaches of English and Latin respectively. These two men have given unequalled time and devotion to their teams and to their schools. In behalf of their determined efforts, let us stop, if only for a moment, in order to give them praise.

As the pages of History slowly turn, the scores and records of this game will be indelibly inscribed for all to see. Thus, the contest before us now, will soon become an unforgettable part of our past.

Soon, the students of both schools will assume positions of leadership within their communities. In order to achieve this end, we must learn from the past, and use this knowledge in helping us to plan for a more productive future.

This Thanksgiving Day, let all of us pray to GOD for those qualities which he has bestowed upon us, and let us therefore remain worthy of his blessings and comfort.

Glancing at the Record

SIXTY YEARS AGO

1904 . . . BLS 5 — EHS 5 . . . American League Grounds . . . 3000 spectators . . . many banners . . . Five years in a row the Purple had won and the Blue was the favorite this year . . . Pishon (E) weighed 87 lbs., according to the accounts of the game . . . Fotch (L) and Duffy (E) — the Captains — ran their teams in a "commendable manner" . . . The English Captain scored the TD (5 points) in the first half (goal missed) . . . "after assailing the Latin School vigorously" . . . Whiting (E) end, outstanding . . . "Many of the players gave evidence of great pluck" . . . As usual: continued drizzle during the game . . . During the night the Purple supporters had placed their colors on the flagpole, removed the ropes and well-greased the pole, and so trouble during the halves as the supporters of the Blue attempted to remove the colors . . . When the field was cleared, many hats were found "but their owners, with battered eyes and faces smiled contentedly" . . . Good old days? . . . Stars for the Blue: Whiting, Duffey, Scanlan and Woodbury . . . for the Purple: Johnson, Cowan, FitzGerald ("in the formation play (?) was good for many gains"), Corbett and Fotch . . . No photographs of game in papers of the day, line drawings

FIFTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

1909 . . . Huntington Avenue Grounds . . . EHS 0 — BLS 0 . . . the fourth of 13 tie games . . . Rainy day, 44° temp. . . . Hard fought game . . . numerous fumbles . . . no damage, however . . . The defensive strength of both teams was great and the field too muddy for speedy backs to circle the ends . . . EHS presented Campbell, RE; Higgins, RT; Todd, RG; Smith, C; Hands, LG; Capt. Gordon Roche, LT; "Chick" Pfau, LE; O'Day, Sawyer and Dolan, QB; Harold Janvrin, RHB; "Bill" Meanix, LHB; Pirrce, FB, and John D. O'Reilly as Coach. BLS had Ayer, LE; Hrsom, LT; O'Hare, LG; Joe Burnett, C (he's the hatless M. D. on the field right now); Capt. Francis "Doc" Madden, RG; Aystin Tate, RT; Gorman, RE; "Mal" Logan, QB; Henry Halligan and Tom Higgins, LHB; Sam Temple and Fred Murray, RHB; Fred Van Etten, FB, with Fred J. O'Brien as Coach.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

1914 . . . at Fenway Park . . . Thanksgiving . . . the sixth tie, 3 to 3 . . . BLS: Enright, LE; Young, LT; Dillon, LG; Capt. Walsh, Murphy, C; Murdough, Levenson, RG; Povah, RT; Connor, RE; Cousens, QB; Dowd, LHB; Ernie Martin, RHB; Maloney, FB . . . EHS: Burbank, RE; Buttner, RT; Huffman, RG; Tremble, C; Santusuosso, LG; Brown, LT; Capt. O'Connor, LE; McKenne, QB; Monagle, RHB; H. Martin, LHB, O'Neil, FB . . . Two well-matched defensive clubs coached by a couple of South Boston neighbors, Dan O'Flaherty of English and Fred J. O'Brien of Latin, could not score a T. D. . . . Toward the end of the second period Enright dropkicked from the 40-yard line for Latin's three points, but in the last minute of the fourth period Capt. O'Connor tied the score with a dropkick from the 21.

EHS	0	0	0	3 — 3
BLS	0	3	0	0 — 3

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

1939 . . . Braves Field . . . "Inspired Latin Team Held to 0-0 Tie by Unbeaten English" . . . Undefeated English, "far more generously endowed in physical properties," never got beyond its own 48-yard line in possession of the ball . . . Latin, however, marched to the 2, the 9, and the 17, but valiant defense by EHS prevented a score . . . The whole Latin team starred, with very bright ones: Rowen, Gorenstein, Beyer, McCarthy, Redgate and Casey . . . Blue brights: King (who blocked an attempted field goal), Tom Brennan, Lombardi and Shtogren.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

1944 . . . EHS 13 — BLS 7 . . . Harvard Stadium for the first time . . . Bob Murphy (E) blocked an end zone punt and then won a torrid race to the far corner to recover for a TD before 15,000 fans . . . Scores: The Blue scored on a 20-yard pass from Maloney to Northbridge who was waiting on the five — all alone — . . . A 19-yard runback by Harwood gave McMorrow a chance on fourth down to pass to Shields who gathered the pass in by a fingernail for the Purple score . . . At half-time: 6-6 . . . Murphy's winning play came in the fourth period . . . Blue stars: Murphy, Maloney, DiGiorgio, Luciano, and Northbridge . . . BLS stalwarts: Harwood, McMorrow, Shields, McLaughlin and Murphy.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

1949 . . . BLS 19 — EHS 0 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . Undefeated and untied Latin Conference Champions . . . Our old friend "fumble-itis" present as both teams dropped the ball for the other to recover . . . Barton (L) recovered a Blue fumble and Carter (L) with a beautiful cutback raced 40 yards for the TD . . . Kent converted . . . Second period: Blue fumble, McNally recovering for the Purple . . . then to EHS 4 . . . Fumble, EHS' ball . . . Fumble, recovered by Skinner (L) . . . Graham scored . . . Stuart (E) broke away for 35 yards only to be caught by Wilson as the half ended . . . No score third period . . . Fourth period: 46-yard pass Semans to Skinner . . . then fumble . . . Jameson, Graham, and Doherty brought ball to Blue 10, then Semans to Skinner for the score . . . Toyias (L) intercepted a Blue last-ditch pass as game ended, running it back for 30 yards . . . The Purple outscored opponents 210 to 25 for the season . . . Stars for the Purple: entire squad . . . Blue brilliants: Stuart, McDonald, O'Leary, Fucille, and McCabe.

TEN YEARS AGO

1954 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . BLS 20 — EHS 7 . . . First time in history a Thanksgiving game was postponed . . . Parlaying a brace of fumbles into a pair of quick touchdowns, the Purple blew open what had been a close battle until then . . . First time in 50 years Latin made it three straight over the Blue . . . D'Avolino's punting kept Latin at bay . . . First half ended 0 0 . . . Then Beckett, McDonough, and Chaban combined for the English TD . . . Johnson scored from the two for Latin . . . point missed . . . BLS kicked off and in 57 seconds there were 14 more Latin points . . . DiGangi (L) falling on one fumble and Bob Grossman on the other . . . Under quarterback Powers the Purple operated as if they had all the time in the world . . . Stars for the Purple: Casey, Johnson, Tobin, Powers, and Grossman . . . For the Blue: McDonough, D'Avolino, Beckett, and Chaban.

FIVE YEARS AGO

1959 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . Fair . . . 36° temp. . . . Slippery field . . . Attendance 23,000 . . . Each team undefeated at start . . . BLS City Champions . . . BLS 22 — EHS 6. Latin's great defense stalls English attack. Nine blocks of granite headed by End Paul Barringer contained EHS vaunted ground attack to a mere 25 net yards as Latin won its second successive City Crown. A record schoolboy crowd of 23,000 witnessed BLS tie the nation's oldest high school series at 30 victories each and 13 ties. EHS suffered its first defeat of the season and BLS extended its undefeated total to 16 games. Wind was blowing in gusts of 30 m.p.h. and there were many fumbles, BUT it was Latin's under any conditions. Bilodeau, whose passing pulled out a 26-24 thriller last year, gave an even more comprehensive quarterbacking lesson to English this time. The talented 5 ft. 11 in., 160-lb. youngster showed what a difference a year makes while scoring Latin's first two touchdowns. His passing, punting, and play-calling was a good as ever, but it was some nifty Tom-foolery that really started English on the skids. He faged a pass on a roll-out left, darted down the left side lines and ran 44 yards to the English 26. EHS never recovered from this explosive dash that opened the second period. Four plays later Bilodeau sneaked over from the two, then hit Paul Barringer with the conversion pass for an 8 to 0 lead. Later in the third period, Randy Benn, attempting a deep reverse, was tackled in the end zone by Jack Cortelli for a safety after Barringer threw Lehman for a nine-yard loss back to the EHS ten-yard line. Bilodeau again moved from the one-yard line early in the final quarter to complete a 57-yard drive. Latin's last score came in the middle of the last period when Mulcahy ran a few yards to his left and then reversed and darted 72 yards for a touchdown. EHS scored late in the third period when Carey intercepted a pass from Bilodeau, intended for Frame, on the 40. A pass, Lehman to Lovuolo gained 28 yards. Carey ended the march by a diveover from the two for the touchdown.

LAST YEAR

1963 . . . English won its third in a row, but by a closer margin than the first pair. Neither team could score in the first quarter but in the second quarter McCool blocked a punt and Dixon recovered on the 27-yard line. Stefano threw a 27-yard pass to Hooper for six points. On the kickoff in the third quarter Jim Heelan, with some great blocking, ran 87 yards for a T. D. Latin School scored also in the third quarter on a pass by Masi to Needham, the pass and run going 44 yards. In the final quarter English was forced to punt and tackle Frank Guidara blocked the kick within the five-yard line and Mike Concannon caught the ball in the end zone for the tieing points. Toward the middle of the final quarter Heelan scored his second and winning touchdown on a nine-yard thrust through tackle. The game was a thriller from start to finish.

EHS	0	6	6	6	— 18
BLS	0	0	6	6	— 12

Through 1963 English had won 33 games, scoring 793 points, while Latin had won 31 games, scoring 704 points. There have been 13 ties, each team scoring 14 points in three of them, each team scoring three points in one of them and each team scoreless in the other nine.
